

International Christmas Market

The Christmas Market is a unique shopping experience that leads to a different way to remember and honor family and friends during the Christmas season. Your dollars spent at this Market offer hope and a chance at a better way of life for people in communities around the world. Every dollar spent at the Market will go outside this church to assist others as they work to provide clothing, shelter, food, and education for themselves and their families. None of the money raised stays within the budget or operating funds of First United Methodist Church. 100% of the money raised will be spent helping others through the organizations represented by the crafts and shares.

Inside this brochure you will find a listing and brief description of the merchandise for sale and shares available at the Christmas Market.

Market Merchandise

SERRV is a nonprofit program to promote the social and economic progress of people in developing regions of the world by marketing their handicrafts in a just and direct manner. The organization promotes living wages, women's rights, and eco-friendly production through partnerships with small-scale artisan groups. These crafts come from artisans living in many countries around the world.

TENTHOUSAND VILLAGES is part of a worldwide movement striving to practice fair trade. The organization provides vital, fair income to artisans world-wide by marketing their handicrafts and telling their stories in North America. Ten Thousand Villages offers fair prices to artisans for their work, enabling them to provide for their basic needs and plan for their future.

BATWA BASKETS are made by the Batwa pygmies, indigenous forest nomads of the Bwindi Impenetrable Forest in southwest Uganda, Africa. In 1992 they were removed from the forest when the area was made a national park to help protect the endangered mountain gorillas living there. The Batwa were left homeless and destitute. The beautiful baskets are handcrafted by the Batwa women using native long grasses and traditional African techniques. The baskets are bought from the women for a local fair market price. The proceeds are sent to the Batwa Development Program which enables the Batwa to build permanent homes, purchase land, improve education, have access to healthcare, and develop self-sufficient communities.

BEAN SOUP AND CHILI MIXES are packaged and decorated by the Mission Work Area to raise money for local, national, and international adult workcamps and mission trips to do repairs and recovery. In 2016 mission teams and workcamps will be going to South Africa, Guatemala, and Haiti as well as workcamps in the US and Dallas Area. Sale of the bean soup and chili mixes will help pay for supplies and materials for the various projects these teams will be doing.

EQUAL EXCHANGE COFFEE AND CHOCOLATE provides fair market prices to small scale farmers in Latin America, Africa and Asia. By purchasing these products you help provide the opportunity for a better life for the farmers and their families.

HAITI CRAFTS of baskets are made by groups of women at the Nehemiah Vision Ministries compound in Port Au Prince. All the proceeds go directly to the ministry and the ladies are paid monthly for their work. Most of the supplies for the crafts are donated so there is very little overhead. These crafts give the women a new chance at a meaningful and productive life, providing for their families.

MARFA MINISTRY was inspired by members of the Saratov United Methodist Church, Saratov, Russia. Marfa is the Russian pronunciation of the name Martha. Iskusniza (ees koos'neets u) means 'women who create art. Marfa Ministry, established in April 2012, is a nonprofit ministry that supports United Methodist Churches in Russia that are struggling to be self-sufficient. Marfa Ministry is also assisting Kharkiv United Methodist Church in Kharkiv, Ukraine and Svetlaya United Methodist Church in Khabarovsk, Russia.

NETS FOR GHANA - Ghanaian beads made from recycled glass, vinyl records, fish bones, and brass are purchased from local merchants in Ghana villages and Ghanaian women are paid higher than a daily wage to produce beautiful bracelets. The money made from the sale of these bracelets goes to purchase insecticide-treated mosquito nets that will protect the people from getting malaria. Malaria kills 1 in 6 children in Africa and is preventable with one of these treated mosquito nets. To date First United Methodist Church Richardson has paid for over 400 nets.

OUTREACH UGANDA is a fair trade organization that employs women to make paper beads and jewelry, sling bags, and shoulder bags. The crafts women use their skills to produce beautiful items to sell and the proceeds from the sales go to the Uganda beading groups, helping women provide food, medicine, shelter, and school supplies for their children and families.

THREADS OF HOPE is a life-changing economic development project empowering women artists in the shanty towns of Peru to create hope-filling futures for their families. These women create beautiful three dimensional fabric items recreating village scenes, Bible stories, and other artistic designs. Ninety percent of the proceeds generated from the sale of these items are returned to the artists to reinforce their families through education, housing, and health care. Exquisite detail, vivid color, and the heart of each artist make every textile a one-of-a-kind gift.
